

COCKTAILS

The Speakeasy - Old Fashioned 7.50
Born in the Deep South and defiantly drunk in Jazz bars at the height of prohibition, the Old Fashioned consists of Woodford Reserve bourbon, bitters and brown sugar. Garnished with an orange slice and a cocktail cherry

The Ernest Hemmingway - Mojito 7-
A concoction from the back streets of 1930's Havana, The Mojito combines white rum, soda, fresh lime juice, brown sugar, fresh mint leaves and simple sugar syrup. Garnished with a lime wedge

The Frieda Karlo - Margarita 7-
A Mexican classic - We mix this cocktail with gold tequila, Cointreau, sugar syrup and fresh lime juice served in a rock salt rimmed glass

The Jasper John - Cosmopolitan 7-
Made exactly as in The Harvey Nichols 5th floor bar café: Ketel 1 vodka, Cointreau, lime juice and cranberry juice. Garnished with a flamed orange peel coil

Louis Armstrong - Lynchberg Lemonade 7-
Not to blow one's own trumpet but we do this one rather well! One point of five of Jack Daniels shaken up with lemon juice, triple sec, sugar syrup topped with soda and a drop of smoky scotch

Mario Testino - Pisco Sour 6.5
Mario is one of the best fashion photographers in Peru and no doubt all his subjects drank copious amounts of these given they are the most popular cocktails in South America. Pisco liquor, lime juice, sugar syrup and fresh egg whites

The Hunter S Thompson - Singapore Sling 7.50
A sumptuous combination of Gordons Gin, cherry brandy, grenadine and pineapple juice as drunk by Raul Duke and Dr. Gonzo in the classic novel 'Fear and Loathing in Las Vegas'

The Botticelli - Negroni 7-
Invented in a tiny café in medieval Florence where Botticelli painted the famous 'Birth of Venus' this drink is a compelling mix of Tanqueray Gin, Campari, Rosso Vermouth. Garnished with a flamed orange peel coil

The Somerset Maugham - Martini 7-
We shake Babicka Vodka and Noilly Pratt in ice and strain into the glass. Served with your choice of an olive, a lemon peel twist, straight or espresso

The JMW Turner - Tequila Sunrise 6.50
Few could capture a sunrise like Turner but tequila makes a valiant attempt! Served with orange juice and grenadine in a tall, ice filled glass

The Shipwrecked Dark & Stormy 7-
Double Kraken dark rum, half a lime, bitters and topped with ginger beer over ice

Bridgit Bardot Sweet Brule Cocktail 8-
50ml toffee vodka, 25ml butterscotch schnapps, dash brulee syrup, dash chocolate liquor, dash pineapple, shaken, poured over ice and served with fresh cream
